BUS SYSTEM OFFERS FREE RIDES

NAPA, CA- Bring a canned good, ride the bus for free. On November 17th – 21st riders of the VINE bus system who bring canned food to donate to the Community Action of Napa Valley Food Bank will get to ride the bus for free. The agency hopes everyone will bring canned goods, get out and ride, and help those less fortunate. Please do not bring expired foods and or foods in glass containers.

The VINE operates bus service within all the communities of the Napa Valley and has express services to Sonoma, Fairfield and BART in the East bay. Over the past year the VINE bus system has experienced record breaking ridership.
